Aboriginal Housing Management Association

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Overview:

Reporting to AHMA’s Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) contributes to the organization’s overall success by leading AHMA’s overall strategic direction and operations and is responsible for overseeing all programs and services offered by AHMA. The CEO is also responsible for proper governance and stakeholder relations, ensuring a high level of ethics and integrity. This position is ultimately accountable for the organization’s financial management and human resources management. The CEO leads the Executive Leadership Team (ELT) in ensuring the development and implementation of AHMA’s strategic plan.

Who our team is looking for:

Ensuring this position is a right fit for candidates is important to the success of AHMA, our stakeholders, and the communities we serve. We encourage all interested candidates thoroughly review the attached job description to appreciate the responsibilities of the position including expected competencies, knowledge and experience requirements.

Please note that only those candidates who clearly indicate in their application how they meet qualifications and below competencies for this position will be considered.

Demonstrated competency in:

- strategically leading and building a Non-Profit Housing Organization,
- strategically Managing programs in an Aboriginal Housing Organization,
- managing innovative projects,
- managing effective teams,
- self management; and

See attached Job Description for additional experience, education and training requirements.

Critical Success Factor:

The core of our business is serving the Aboriginal community; therefore, a critical success factor for any person who joins the AHMA team is to have an in-depth understanding of Aboriginal people and Aboriginal culture, preferably with strong British Columbia connections.

Team members are expected to have gained this understanding through lived experiences, whether it is from being of Aboriginal ancestry or working closely with Aboriginal communities. Preference will be given to applicants of Aboriginal ancestry as per Section 41 of the BC Human Rights Code (self-identify).